CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- No liability for entries lost, damaged or delayed will be accepted.
- Winners of categories can re enter, except where they have won that category on 3 consecutive years
- Winners may use the Award logos in their own publicity following approval by the organisers.
- Friends and families of judges, funders or sponsors cannot enter the Awards.
- Sponsors of the awards are not allowed to enter any of the categories.
- There can be no appeal against decisions of the judges and these decisions must be accepted as final in respect of all matters.
- Illegible entries will be dismissed at the outset.
- The Cornwall Sustainability Awards are free to enter and open to anyone over the age of 18 provided they represent a business with its head office or main business premises in Cornwall or the Isles of Scilly.
- The business can be a sole trader, a private or public limited company, a partnership or limited liability partnership, a business unit within a company or a not-for-profit organisation.
- Businesses can operate in any trading sector.
- Shortlisted applicants will be expected to provide digital photographs of their business activities for the award ceremony if requested by the organisers.
- Businesses can enter any number of different award categories and can win any number of categories.
- Responsibility within the scope of these conditions cannot be accepted for any failure of confidentiality. Entrants will be expected to protect those aspects of their business that may be patentable, registerable or otherwise secret and governed by intellectual property, copyright or similar legislation.
- The organisers reserve the right to publicise the results of the competition and use winning entries in press releases and publicised case histories. It is a condition of entry that participants will co-operate with the media. Winners may refer to the competition in their own publicity material following approval by the organisers of such material.
- It is a condition that entrants must declare whether they, or the business they represent, are involved in (or could be involved in) any dispute or judgement that could in any way significantly interfere with the proper conduct of the Cornwall Sustainability Awards.
- No correspondence will be entered into.
- The judges reserve the right to move applicants from one category to another where they believe it would enhance the applicants opportunities of success.
